Train

Leeds station connects us with all major UK cities and has a fast and efficient London service. The principal station that runs trains to Leeds is London Kings Cross. For train information and timetables visit National Rail Enquiries. Visitors should expect to pay under £40.00 for a return ticket between Manchester Airport and Leeds and around £270.00 for a return ticket from Heathrow Airport to Leeds. All travelling times vary depending on the time and day.

Walking

The University campus is just a 20 minute walk from Leeds Train Station. Exit the station into City square; with the Queens Hotel behind you, walk straight up Park Row. Continue up Park Row until the first major junction. Cross straight over The Headrow and continue up Cookridge Street. At the next set of lights continue straight ahead, passing Millennium Square on your left and Leeds City Museum on your right. Turn left on to Woodhouse Lane, a busy main road. You will pass Leeds Beckett University on your left and our University campus begins in another 100 metres.
To reach the Parkinson building, carry on up Woodhouse Lane to the Parkinson clock tower building. Turn left past the security barriers and continue down Cavendish Road. The School of Music will be on your right hand side.

Parking

Where possible we suggest the use of public transport to travel to the University. Parking at the University of Leeds is extremely limited, and must be booked in advance, chargeable at £7.00 per day (card payment only).

If parking is required please email confadmin@leeds.ac.uk with required dates, your name and vehicle registration number. Parking will be allocated on a first come first served basis. Access to the car park is available via the main University entrance on Woodhouse Lane (Postcode LS2 9JT). All other University vehicle entrances are limited to permit holders only. For more information and prices on alternative car parks in Leeds please visit http://www.parkopedia.co.uk
